1. Citipointe Privacy Policy

1.1. Citipointe's Privacy Policy abides within the Whole of Church Privacy Policy of the Christian Outreach Centre Movement. This Citipointe privacy policy, hence is a second generation Privacy Policy which resides under the COC movement's overarching Privacy Policy. The COC Movement's Privacy Policy may be viewed at www.coc.org.au/australia/privacy

2. Policy Statement

- 2.1. Citipointe Church ABN 79 400 419 737 099 appreciates that privacy is very important. Citipointe in compliance with the Privacy Act (2000) has adopted this Privacy Policy. We recognise the right of people to keep their personal information private.
- 2.2. Citipointe's Privacy Policy covers the churches and related entities treatment of personally identifiable information that we collect or hold, like many other organisations, Citipointe as a part of the Christian Outreach Centre Movement must comply with the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012 when dealing with personal information.
- 2.3. All personal information collected by Citipointe will comply with the Australian Privacy Principles as detailed below and as amended from time to time:
1. Collection
 2. Use and disclosure
 3. Data quality
 4. Data security
 5. Openness
 6. Access and correction
 7. Identifiers
 8. Anonymity
 9. Transborder data flows
 10. Sensitive Information

3. Information We Collect

3.1. General

Citipointe will collect general information about you, such as your name, address, contact details, special dates such as birthdays and anniversaries.

We may also collect other types of personal information including which small group in the church you belong to, details of pastoral contacts, significant events such as dates of salvation, water baptism, course completions etc. Other data may also be collected for example when you wish to obtain goods or services from Citipointe, when you register for conferences or events, and when you participate in Church activities or complete other forms.

3.2. Video/Photographs

Images of individuals in photographs or film are treated as personal information under the Privacy Act where the person's identity is clear or can reasonably be worked out from that image. Citipointe upholds that all photographs and video footage of individuals will be used solely for church related purposes including at times promotion.

Both video and still photography are an active part of the church life, activities and services. Citipointe uses video and still photography for church related purposes or promotions. In accordance with the privacy act an individual's consent will be sought if the photograph or video records sensitive information about the individual. Where practically possible Citipointe will seek the consent of individuals in other cases.

If you would like to have a video or still image removed from any material, please contact us using the contact details set out below.

3.3. Sensitive Information

Certain information which may be collected by Citipointe will be regarded as Sensitive Information in accordance with Government regulations. The disclosure of Sensitive Information can only be made by Citipointe with your direct consent. Some examples of Sensitive Information which in special circumstances may be collected include:

1. Criminal record;
2. Racial or ethnic origin;
3. Health;
4. Philosophical beliefs;
5. Financial circumstances;
6. Pastoral Care Matters

Where practicable, the purpose for which we collect personal information will be made clear at the time of collection.

In certain situations we may be unable to provide you with access to some of our services or the assistance you have requested if you do not provide us with certain information. However, in such cases all available avenues will be exhausted in order to accommodate your needs prior to such a denial.

Users can generally visit Citipointe website without revealing who they are or other personal information unless they log on, place an order, or register with us. Citipointe will not collect any personal information about visitors to the website except when they knowingly provide it.

3.4. Internet "Cookies"

"Cookies" are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive. Citipointe cookies do not contain any personally identifying information, but they may be used to personalise your Citipointe (www.citipointe.com.au) or COC (www.coc.org.au) web page for your use.

4. How we use your information

Citipointe will use the personal information we collect for the purpose disclosed at the time of collection, or otherwise as set out in this Privacy Policy. We will not use your personal information for any other purpose without first seeking your consent, unless authorised or required by law. Generally we will only use and disclose your personal information as follows:

1. to provide adequate pastoral care as a member or pre-member of Citipointe;
2. to establish and maintain your involvement with Citipointe, including providing you with birthday cards, newsletters and invitations to special events;
3. to provide the products or services you have requested from Citipointe;
4. to answer your inquiry;
5. to register you for events, conferences or promotions;
6. to assist us to make Citipointe's sites, services and products more valuable to our community;
7. for direct promotion of products or services and to keep you informed of new developments we believe may be of interest to you. If we contact you in this way without obtaining your prior consent, we will provide you with the opportunity to decline any further promotional communications;
8. to third parties where we have retained those third parties to assist us to operate Citipointe and provide the products or services you have requested, such as religious education instructors, catering and event coordinators, promotions companies, transport providers, health care providers, website hosts and IT consultants, and our professional advisers such as consultants, lawyers and accountants. In some circumstances we may need to disclose sensitive information about you to third parties as part of the services you have requested; and
9. to different parts of Citipointe to enable the development and promotion of other products and services and to improve our general ability to assist Church attendees and the wider community.

5. What we will not do with your information

The information we collect is used only for the purpose we have indicated. We do not and will not:

1. Sell, trade or rent personal information about you to any other party outside Citipointe or the Christian Outreach Centre Movement.

2. Record credit card information or other personal information you may from time to time supply us with for the purposes of making a one off purchase or transaction. All sensitive information such as credit card numbers will be responsibly destroyed after the transaction has been completed
3. Pass on your personal information to anyone unless we are legally bound to do so under any federal or state laws.

6. Access to your information

You can request access to the personal information that Citipointe holds about you by contacting Citipointe's Compliance Officer as set out below. We will provide you with access to your personal information unless we are legally authorised to refuse your request. We may charge a reasonable amount for providing access.

If you wish to change personal information that is out of date or inaccurate at any time please contact us. After notice from you, we will take all reasonable steps to correct any of your information which is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date. If you wish to have your personal information deleted please let us know and we will delete that information wherever practicable.

We may, only under exceptional circumstances, refuse your request to access, amend or delete your personal information. If such a request is refused, we will provide you with a reason for our decision and, in the case of amendment, we will note with your personal information that you have disputed its accuracy.

7. Security

Citipointe will take reasonable steps to keep secure any personal information which we hold and to keep this information accurate and up to date. Personal information is stored in a secure server or secure files.

The Internet is not a secure method of transmitting information. Accordingly, Citipointe cannot accept responsibility for the security of information you send to or receive from us over the Internet or for any unauthorised access or use of that information.

8. Changes to this Privacy Policy

Citipointe may amend this Privacy Policy from time to time and provide access to such amended versions at the information counters at Citipointe or on our website at www.citipointe.com.au. We suggest that you visit our website regularly to keep up to date with any changes.

9. Contacting us
